ii. Medical Check-up Committee's Report

There was no report.

iii. Social Committee's Report

The Chairman, SK Ladi Salako, proposed Thursday, 31st July, 2025 for the A-List Party Night and it was unanimously agreed.

iv. Welfare and Membership Committee's Report

The Chairman of the Membership Committee, SK Boye Oni, had earlier presented the report on late members. However, deliberations arose regarding the status of Distant Members, particularly in relation to their commitments to the club. In consideration of the founding members, it was agreed that a new category, to be titled “Former Members”, should be created.

This new list comprises: SK Richard Amadin, SK Banky Obikoya, SK Dayo Adedeji, and SK Taiye Ladipo. Distant Members are to be reminded that they are expected to continue active association with the club and to fulfil all necessary financial obligations as a demonstration of their continued interest.

The Chairman of the Membership Committee was further tasked with contacting SK Rotimi Jaiyesimi and SK Tokunbo Fabamwo to determine under which category they wish to be listed, while also clarifying the responsibilities associated with each category. In the meantime, close friends of these members are encouraged to communicate with them informally before the club issues an official letter.

F. SILVER KNIGHTS HUMANITARIAN FOUNDATION REPORT (SKHF)

The Chairman, SK Yomi Layinka, informed members that the trustees are scheduled to meet the following Tuesday, during which greater clarity on the approach to their intervention is expected. A suggestion was put forward to consider adopting an advocacy strategy in place of direct intervention, as it is believed that direct intervention may ultimately incur higher costs than initially anticipated. SK Bolaji Tubi further advised that, given the intervention focuses on sanitation, the Ministry of Education should also be informed about alternative technical methods of waste management, such as the use of bio-digesters. Members appreciated these suggestions and plan to work with it.

SK Yomi Layinka concluded that the Black-Tie Luncheon will be driven by SKHF and its being worked out.

G. FIFTEEN MINUTE TALK

There was no 15 minutes talk.

H. TREASURER'S REPORT

Before the meeting, SK Labi Adeyemi shared his report. Question was asked regarding the disbursement of the cooperative funds, SK Babajide Olatunde-Agbeja members that the details are available and will be shared. He then proceeded to collect the GTM from members.
